

Secondary Annual Conference for Art, Craft and Design 2022

This conference offers opportunities to participate and listen to the latest national trends and good practice in art and design education, including national speakers and practical activities.

Keynote speaker, Lucy Ash is a British artist whose work is concerned with creating visibility and shifting perception of the LGBTQ+ community. She incorporates personal narrative with ideas of time, mathematics, and rhythm to represent an emotional response to love, death, loss, and injustice.

Also joining the conference is artist Jacqui Mair. Jacqui has spent the last thirty-five years balancing her life between the world of Fine Art and Illustration whilst teaching all over the world. After studying at the Royal College of Art in London she realised her love of paper and collage through print.

- Keynote address covering latest art education developments, Ofsted and NSEAD
